Detailed Itinerary

DAY 1

ARRIVE MUMBAI

By: An International Flight

Arrive in Mumbai in the evening.

Following Customs, Immigration formalities and baggage collection, a Trek Nirvana representative will meet you outside the Arrival Hall, after which you will be transferred to your hotel.

Upon arrival, check-in to your hotel for 02 nights stay.

DAY 2

IN MUMBAI

Breakfast at hotel.

This morning, proceed for a photo stop at the Gateway of India which was built by Scottish architect George Wittet in the Indo-Saracenic style. It's the most iconic landmark of Mumbai.

From here, board a boat to go to the Elephanta Caves which date back to the mid-fifth to 6th century CE. These caves are a UNESCO World Heritage Site accessible only by a ferry ride from the Gateway of India. The 7-metre-high “Sadashiva” is the pièce de résistance of the Elephanta Caves. This awe-inspiring piece of carving does worth a visit. You can also find Buddhist mounds and stupas on the island.

DAY 3

MUMBAI - AURANGABAD

By: Flight

Breakfast at hotel.

Start your day with a city tour driving past the historical buildings with a photo stop at Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Terminus followed by a visit to Mani Bhavan. The two-storeyed iconic building of Mani Bhavan was the Mumbai headquarters of Mahatma Gandhi for about 17 years from where he initiated several programs of India's freedom movement.

Later, transfer to Domestic Terminal of Mumbai Airport to board a flight to Aurangabad.

Fly Mumbai – Aurangabad.

Upon arrival in Aurangabad, check in to a hotel.

The city of Aurangabad was founded by Malik Ambar in 1610. It received its current name in 1653 when Aurangzeb made it the capital of the Deccan. It has seen several dynasties come and go, absorbing the culture of each into itself. Historic towns like Khuldabad, Pitalkore and Paithan lie scattered a few kilometers away. Aurangabad also has a 50,000 year old meteorite impact crater which has remained a lesser known discovery.

DAY 04

IN AURANGABAD

This full day is dedicated to explore Ajanta caves.

Ajanta Caves (closed on Mondays) – survived hundreds of years in the Sahyadri hills to tell the story of a rich and glorious past from 200 BC to 650 AD. These caves were built to offer seclusion to the Buddhist monks, who lived, taught and performed rituals in the Chaityas and Viharas, which were the seats of learning and cultural movement. There are 30 caves in Ajanta of which 9, 10, 19, 26 and 29 are chaitya–grihas and the rest are monasteries Ajanta offers rich tapestry of images that speak of places, royalty, culture and tales of everyday life of ancient India. It is a World Heritage site.

Return to Aurangabad by late afternoon.

DAY 05

IN AURANGABAD

This morning, embark on a guided tour of Ellora caves.

Ellora Caves (Closed on Tuesdays), are the finest example of cave temples; these 34 caves have intricate interiors and ornamental facades. Carved during the 350 AD and 700 AD, the rock temples and monasteries represent three faiths – Hinduism, Buddhism and Jainism. There are 34 caves, of which 12 are Buddhist, 17 Hindu and 5 Jain. The caves all face west so are best seen in the afternoon.

In the afternoon, you have an option to relax at the hotel or opt for a guided tour of Aurangabad at an additional cost.

DAY 06

AURANGABAD– MUMBAI
MUMBAI – GOA

By A Domestic Flight
By: A Domestic Flight

This morning, you will be transfer to airport for a flight to Goa via Mumbai. The flight is expected to arrive in Goa by mid-afternoon.

Upon arrival in Goa, check in to a hotel.

Once a Portuguese colony, Goa is known for its beaches and imposing baroque churches. Life here is like an eternal carnival and the people are laidback and fun loving. It has a deeply entrenched Portuguese influence in all aspects of life owing to the long colonial occupation by the Europeans.

DAY 07

IN GOA

The full day is planned at leisure for you to relax on the beautiful beaches of Goa. You will also have an option to opt for an optional activity, like a cooking class or a visit to spice plantation or to explore the churches of Goa at an additional cost.

DAY 08

GOA – MUMBAI
MUMBAI DEPARTURE

By: A Domestic Flight
BY: An International Flight

Morning is at leisure for you to do independent activities.

In the afternoon you will be transferred to the Airport to board a flight to Mumbai.

Upon arrival in Mumbai, check in to a hotel for 'wash & change'.

Late in the evening you will be transferred to the International Airport to board your flight for onward journey.
